Art down the line

A fun multimedia creative event based on the idea of the old style progressive dinner using the train as our transport.

Starting at the Trafalgar Artspace we will sample, play, layer before moving to Yarragon for lunch. And then onto Warragul for your final paint, stick, sew, sketch or highlight to finish. Celebrate with us.

Start time is 10-10:30am at Trafalgar, Monday 11th Dec
(timing will depend on trains arriving from Warragul or Moe direction)

Surprises along the way mean we will not be giving too many more details.

Cost $10. Everything is provided, except your lunch.

Suggest parking at your local station and taking train to Trafalgar arriving between 10-10:30am.

After the first session we take the train together to Yarragon for lunch (BYO). Then take the train to Warragul to finish off our art works. Finishing between 3-4pm.

Artist Chat on the radio

Artist Chat is a monthly radio segment where Rodney Williams and Jeff Thege talk with one of our local artists. Aired on a Friday night and then repeated on the following Saturday morning. Check 3bbfrm.org.au for more information.

Baw Baw Arts Alliance

With thanks to our sponsors

From the President

Janine Richardson

It has been an eventful time since I took on the role of President. The Arts Alliance is a fast-paced group, always coming up with some new idea or something new to try. I have greatly enjoyed my role so far.

My role is to support some very creative people. It has been fun being on the planning group for Art Down the Line, which, due to a train outage, had to be re-scheduled to Monday 11th December so that it could stay on track.

The Arts Alliance Market in Warragul has continued to thrive and develop into a large, vibrant market with a friendly village feel, attracting families to visit.

The Gallery has continued to be well supported by our artists so that we have been able to provide new monthly exhibitions and our Gallery Shop continues to be filled by high quality work from local artists.

The Drop-in Groups have continued to attract new members and we are looking to adding more groups as people express interest.

It has been great to meet so many new people and be inspired by their journeys.

My role has been to provide guidance, wisdom, direction and vision and to learn about the many directions and operations of the Arts Alliance.

This report has been written on my behalf as I have recently become a grandmother to a new baby girl and have been a little bit distracted.

Thank you to our wonderful hardworking Committee of Management and various sub committees and others who contribute to the operation of our organisation. Everyone works so hard as volunteers to keep doing all that we do.

May I wish you all a very Happy Christmas and all the best for the coming year. Thanks for your support throughout the year. Look forward to catching up with you soon.

Sharon Wootton on 'The Wall' this month with 'What's Your Story'. Another intriguing artist.

Hopefully you were able to call in to see these exhibitions.

Our exhibition calendar is now fully booked for next year. Thank you very much for your support.

We have started taking bookings now for 2025. If you are interested in having an exhibition with us, please contact me.

For anything to do with exhibitions please contact me at exhibitions@bawbawartsalliance.org.au

Diary Dates

Bbaa has organised a few exhibitions this year. All exhibitions are open for members and non-members to enter. All entries are online on our website. bawbawartsalliance.org.au

The last one for this year is-

December - Recycling/ Repurposing Artwork

This one should be a bit of fun. Thinking of new ideas and uses for all sorts of things and turning them into artwork. Open for anyone to enter.

The opening of this will be on Saturday 9th December at 2.00pm.

All details about Bbaa, including our Exhibitions, is on our website, www.bawbawartsalliance.org.au

We are having some great exhibitions. Please come and enjoy them with us.

Gallery Shop

Please also don't forget our Gallery Shop, a great place to enjoy some Christmas shopping. Our artists are keeping us well stocked with some very interesting pieces of work.

Contact Alene on 0427402117 if you would like to put some work into the gallery shop. You must be a Bbaa member.

We also have a gallery shop in Trafalgar in Artspace1 called Shop@Artspace Trafalgar which is open during the week. This is also available for members to sell their artwork. If you have some work you would like to put in, please contact me or Marlene.

Volunteers

We are always looking for volunteers to help us run the Gallery at Yarragon

Please contact Heather Easdown on 0405399368 if you have some time to spare. We would really appreciate your help to run the gallery. A big thank you to all of our volunteers, we couldn't exist without you.

Groups

Drop-in Groups will be taking a break over the Christmas and holiday period. Stopping and starting back dates in 2024 vary from group to group. I will put a list in this newsletter if it has been completed and it will be on the website for you. Group leaders will have already discussed this with regular attendees.

Time for a very big thank you to all the people who make the Galleries function, and there are quite a number of them.

The Bbaa Committee of Management, the Gallery Committee, the exhibition hanging team, the Gallery volunteers and Volunteer coordinator, the Gallery shop coordinator, the maintenance team, the Membership coordinator, the administration team, the IT team, the publicity committee, our newsletter and enews editors and the Drop-in Group leaders. And of course, a big thank you to all our artists.

Amazing the number of people involved in keeping us operating.

Thank you all for your help and support during the year.

I wish you all a safe and happy Christmas and New Year.

Take care and all the best.

Sue 🌸

Hi Everyone

Well, the year has come to an end, and this will be our last newsletter for this year. A big thank you to our Newsletter Editor Heather Brimblecombe.

Recent Gallery Events Bbaa Garage Sale

As part of the Trafalgar township garage sale day Alene Bonser organised a garage sale for us in AS2 on Sunday October 15 from 8.00am -1.00pm. A successful day for our organisers and sellers. An activity which we hope to have again in October 2024.

Seniors Week

Four very successful activities were run for Seniors Week in October. Thanks to Marlene Ogden, Rodney Williams, Cheryl Cook and Jeff Thege for their work. All activities were well attended and enjoyed by all. Marlene had to run an extra session to fit in all her bookings.

Exhibitions October

The Wall exhibition from Cheryl Cook and Jacqui Johns with 'The Masks We Wear' was a very interesting, thought-provoking exhibition.

In the main exhibition space, we welcomed the Bonser Family. We enjoyed work from different family members representing a range of ages. Four generations of the family, what an amazing contribution. Great to meet many of them at their Opening Event.

November

'Nature's Alchemy' exhibition from Cheryl Cook has ended. Some very interesting art pieces, a different exhibition from Cheryl.

Artist Profile: Dot Thorne

mosaic has become my main interest. As with the paintings, colour is the most important thing. No drawing of a design, just time spent sorting the right colour/pattern combinations from my stock of recycled china sourced from Op shops.

whilst encouraging individual style to develop. I have won many prizes over the years for 3D and 2D work, had one solo exhibition, and taken part in very many group exhibitions. I am very happy to be a member of Bbaa with all the lovely kindred spirits. I love being involved in things, which is why I spent many years as a busy member of the Waverley Arts Society - I used to organise the life drawing class, and was a committee member at the Highway Gallery, curating exhibitions and hanging.

Art is the best hobby in the world, and we can all keep on doing it forever. ~

I have been drawing for as long as I can remember but didn't start thinking seriously until I was about 30. Realistic and traditional at first, very good training. Then I started abstracting a bit, and using more vivid colours, and lots of imagination, patterns, slivers of colour, splashes, spots, meandering lines. I started with oil paint, have tried every medium, and eventually settled on acrylic paint, mainly because it dries very quickly and I change my mind a lot as the painting progresses, sometimes it takes itself off on an entirely unexpected path. For years I did not paint landscapes, but since moving to Gippsland I find that this beautiful area has seeped into my brain, and hills and trees sometimes emerge.

I enjoy working in 3D. Sculptures in wire, wood, and found objects. Nests, cocoons, and seed pods predominate. Of recent years

Brett Whitely is a favourite artist for his imagination and drawing skills, Fred Williams for his Pilbara series (the colour knocks your socks off), but my favourite artist is John Olsen – his paintings are so free and loose and joyful.

I have had no formal art training but spent 30 years being tutored and mentored by Carol Boothman who is an extraordinary woman, giving invaluable advice on painting, drawing, (and life and dog training),

Artist Profile: Barbara Gogerly

Art has been a wonderful adventure which started with paper and pencil, as a child trying to capture that which was around me, but I had to wait until 1984 before painting took hold when I joined Waverley Arts Society.

The teacher who has had the greatest influence on my work was Carol Boothman OAM.

In 1986 I was pointed in Carol's direction by both Marg McLoughlin and Janet Flinn and painted under her wise guidance and encouragement. The stable of artists in those classes and the weekly Life Class was phenomenal, with inspiration to spare. She has now retired but I still have her words in my mind.

It was in these classes that I met and became friends with Dot Thorne.

Initially it was people and colour that inspired my art but since moving to Yarragon in 2007 the gentle rolling hills, big open skies, and cloudscapes of West Gippsland have given me greater subject matter. I especially love the light at sunset when all the world turns to red gold in those few final moments before the sun sets out past Kerrie Brae.

In 2014 as a member of Bbaa I was introduced to mosaic which I have to say is an addictive art form and not a craft. Classes with Helen Bodycomb, Alene Bonser, Viv Hordern, Lesley Kingston, Cetta Pilati, as well as immersion in the art of Maery Gabriel has been invaluable. I am a member of MAANZ (Mosaic Association of Australia and New Zealand) and attend their symposia and workshops as able. I follow the work of Helen Knock, Rachel Davies, and Keely Knickerbocker

Colour still pulls me in, although since the 2019 MAANZ Symposium, I have been doing quite a lot with the earthy tones of slate, marble and natural materials adding just a hint of colour from smalti (small opaque glass tiles).

I have to say It is all good fun and mosaic is a new and wonderful adventure. ~

Artist Profile: Elsa Rabin

Forty years ago, Elsa Rabin accidentally became interested, with some success, in painting portraits and animals but she found it an expensive hobby. However her interest continued on the discovery of Steven Parrish' photos of Australia which she found inspirational. She sought permission from him to use his photos as a starting point and this was granted.

Elsa's journey to her current style has been an eclectic one through a love of sewing, embroidery, knitting, making dolls, painting, breeding dogs, creating exclusive dog collars sold around the world and back to painting.

Now at 80 years of age, surrounded by the detritus of all these beautiful hobbies, she received a gift of paints and canvasses from her children so began painting again. She believes she has now more than 50 recent works of Art to her name.

Elsa draws her inspiration from anything...photos, the internet, friends, family but specifically on looking from a window after her husband passed away she sighted a remarkable Smoke Bush that caught her imagination and inspired her to put paint to canvas.

While she describes her style as haphazard, Elsa has completed some classes with Dave Thomas and developed a clear process for each work of art. She always prepares her canvas with acrylic first because of the faster drying time then paints in oils. Her careful preparation has won her numerous minor prizes and a major one, a first at the New South Wales Canine Council Arts Competition. This was for 'Chinese Crested Dog, an oil on board painting.

Although Elsa has only just begun painting again, she is already looking forward to new directions and hopes to try larger works that her current 23 centimetre square frames. ∞

Arts Market Report

The market continues to be very well supported by customers and stallholders alike.

Applications for stalls are still being received, wherever possible they will be accepted (providing they fit the criteria, and there is room in each category).

The carpark and forecourt is not ideal in location, but with the additions of children's activity and live music each month it creates a warm welcoming atmosphere.

There are 50+ stalls booked for every month. November was heavily booked, a couple of late cancellations gave the "fill in" coordinators a headache. Everything ran very smoothly, Thankyou to Marlene and team for a successful market.

December planning is well underway, it's going to be BIG!
